

KNUT VAAGE – BIOGRAPHY

Knut Vaage, born 1961, lives in Bergen where he works as a composer. He graduated as pianist and composer from Griegakademiet in Bergen. From the Norwegian Academy of Music he has received a professional certificate as a lecturer in composition. Vaage has worked in different styles of music, though concentrating on improvised and contemporary music. Many of Vaage's projects have investigated the boundaries between improvisation and composed music. Vaage's work varies from symphonic works and opera, to solo pieces. His music has been regularly performed on concerts and at festivals in Norway and abroad.
